

JGR: Journal of Geophysical Research

Parts A, B, C, D, F at Engr Libr, go to QC 811 J86

Part E is located only at PSL, go to QB600 .J86

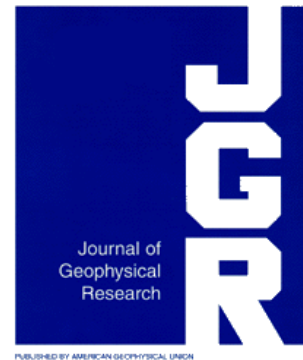

JGR has six parts to it, look for the proper color coded part.

The numbering of pages starts with part A and ends with part F (new in 2004) for each volume; however, we bind each part separately. Accordingly, page numbers continue in the next part. When trying to find a paper, make sure you go to the right part (see below) first.
